SCHOOL COUNSELING REFERRAL PROCESS

A student can receive individual and/or small group counseling services in the following three ways*:

1. Student Referral

Students can refer themselves for individual counseling by speaking with the School Counselor.

2. Teacher Referral

Teachers can refer a student by contacting the School Counselor with any academic, personal, or social concerns.

3. Parent Referral

Parents can refer their child by calling the School Counselor, or emailing the School Counselor and requesting that their child be seen.

**A parent/guardian must sign a consent form before a child participates in regular individual or group counseling services.*
